

GIFAS, the French aerospace industries association, has 260 members, from major prime contractors and system suppliers to small specialist companies. They cover the full spectrum of skills from the design, development and production of aerospace systems and equipment to maintenance and operation. As the voice of the French aerospace industry in France and worldwide, GIFAS:

- represents the industry on French, European and International bodies, both public and private;
- coordinates industrial and business activities;
- harmonises technical, trade, and business procedures

The present GIFAS chairman is Mr Charles EDELSTENNE, DASSAULT AVIATION CEO.
